About NapkinNights.com:

NapkinNights.com offers current and compelling photo coverage of the night life and parties in all of their markets. They do this by sending the "NapkinNights Girls" out to the clubs with a digital camera in one hand and cards bearing the logo and URL of the website in the other.

NapkinNights.com is a DBA of Katen Lee Productions, LLC. The company was founded in February of 2002 in Sacramento, CA, after it was apparent that the website that founders, Tracy Lee and Steve Katen had started for fun, had the potential to become a thriving business. Not wanting to put all their eggs in one basket, Katen Lee Productions also offered web design services; building a number of websites for local businesses. Seeing a need for the services that they had to offer, they expanded the business to Las Vegas in middle of 2003. After building up a solid, world wide following, two years later they expanded the website to cover Scottsdale, Phoenix, and Tempe; and less than a year after that, San Diego and San Francisco bringing the website's market count to five.
